Description

A George V era walnut chest of drawers c1920. The 1920 era saw a revival of Queen Anne style walnut furniture and this is an example. It features matched quarter walnut veneer on the top and matched walnut veneer on each drawer. The top is also cross banded and line inlaid around the edge. The outswept feet and brass handles are in keeping. All locks and escutcheons are present. The drawers are oak lined. Professionally cleaned and repolished. There was no damage to the veneers. A good looking chest, with great colour and interest due to the matched veneers.
