Item Reference: SA1229563

Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

Four-panel back over a box seat with lift-up lid retaining its original iron hinges. Circa 1750. Beautifully figured wood grain and a mellow, original, untouched patina. All panels are original, including the backboards, which are held in place with hand-forged iron nails. The originality of this piece sets it apart from many other settles currently available.
