Description

A George IV mahogany linen press. The top section has a flame mahogany double-door front behind which it retains the original deep-press drawers. Below this, the base has two short and two long drawers, with each having brass pull handles. The overall condition is very good with age-related wear and tear. Covered under non-transferable Standard Ivory Exemption Declaration, no. 8XSCZKNNB (items made before March 3, 1947, containing less than 10% ivory by volume with integral ivory.) Note to the purchaser: We will register this item for a new non-transferable standard ivory exemption declaration under the new owner's name upon completion of transaction. This certificate will then remain in your name until the time you decide to sell.
