Description

A heavy and well made brass chamberstick thought to be French with the images of four birds in the base including a heron, and what appears to be a winged animal forming the handle and supporting the candle cup. The handle is the head of a fictitious character forming the underside and the smoothness of his flat hat makes a comfortable shape on top to hold the item. In the UK the character Wee Willy Winkle appears on some items, and this could possibly be either Un Latin a spirit or goblin, who was thought to have played harmless tricks if children didn't go to sleep on time, or Pierrot, famous for the children's nursery rhyme, Au Clair De La Lune. We can't be sure, and if someone knows, please advise. It is a well made, heavy, finely cast item. The candle cup unscrews from the base for easy packing. It measures 15cm across at the widest part, and 10 cm in height, and weighs 480 grams or half a kilo. There are no signs of damage or repair, and it has been professionally polished to highlight the wildlife details. Postage and packing for the UK mainland only is included in the price, and for outside areas or delivery abroad please contact us for a deliv...
