A late 17th-century circa 1680s. English oak chest of drawers, a lovely, example. It stands on its original block feet and has a rich, deep original colour. The façade is arranged in the classic late-17th-century manner of three tiers of drawers, each drawer front boldly moulded with geometric raised panels. The drawers run smoothly and are fitted with brass pear-drop handles and matching keyhole escutcheons. It measures 73.5 centimetres high, 80 centimetres wide, and 48 centimetres deep.
