Description

A timeless piece of English jewellery, this classic antique band ring is crafted in warm 9ct rose gold. Dating to 1916, its beautifully simple design and softly rounded profile give it an understated elegance that has endured for more than a century. The rich rose-gold tone brings warmth to the polished finish, while the substantial 5mm width makes this a wonderfully versatile ring. Elegant worn alone as a wedding band or everyday ring, it also pairs beautifully with other gold jewellery. Fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1916 and bearing the maker's mark "JM", this is a genuine antique piece with both character and history. This pre-loved antique treasure has been carefully cleaned and polished in our workshop and is presented in excellent condition, ready to be worn and cherished once again. Details Metal: 9ct rose gold Hallmarked: Birmingham 1916 Maker's mark: JM Weight: 3.7 grams Band width: 5mm UK Size: N US Size: 7 EU Size: 54 Condition: Antique, excellent
