Description

An outstanding antique Edwardian inlaid mahogany revolving bookcase. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1890-1910 period. It is of exceptional quality, with a beautiful and useful design. The mahogany has a gorgeous colour tone and grain patterns, there are wonderful satin wood inlays on the top with cross banded edges, and there is alternating banding of satin wood and mahogany around the outer top edge. This has lots of storage space for books and objects, the bookcase spins on a solid mahogany cross framed base with porcelain casters. We have had this recently re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age with just some extremely minor wear remaining here and there. Width – 19.5 inches , 50 cm Depth – 19.5 inches , 50 cm Height – 34 inches , 86 cm
