

SA1229798

An Important Royal-Descent 18-Karat Gold Fusee Pocket Watch by R. Stewart, Glasgow

Price

GBP 12,500

| USD $17,043 | EUR 14,586

Item Reference: SA1229798Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

An Important 18-Karat Gold Fusee Pocket Watch by R. Stewart, Glasgow. Featuring the Armorials of Captain Augustus John William Henry Kennedy-Erskine, 19th Laird of Dun (1866–1908), The Great-Grandson of King William IV. "IN DOMINI CONFIDO" - "In the Lord I put my trust" (or "I trust in the Lord"). Retailer: R. Stewart, Argyle St & Buchanan St, Glasgow. Movement Number: No. 48656. Case Maker: John Woodman (Clerkenwell, London), stamped JW. Period: Late 19th Century. Composition & Weight: Solid 18-karat yellow gold, weighing a substantial 65 grams. Dimensions: Approximately 6 cm from suspension ring to base; 4 cm across dial casing. Description & Royal Provenance: An exceptional, museum-grade British fusee pocket watch, elevated to an investment-tier artifact by its documented royal lineage and custom armorial commission. The Royal Armorial Provenance: The exterior is meticulously adorned with the polychrome armorials and personal cipher of Captain Augustus John William Henry Kennedy-Erskine, 19th Laird of Dun (1866–1908). As the great grandson of King William IV (through his mother, Lady Augusta FitzClarence, daughter of the King and Dorothea Jordan) and a prominent Sco...

Seller Details

Sandbanks Antiques

Sandbanks Poole Dorset United Kingdom. By appointment only in Poole or London.

Tel: 07889 139677

International Tel: +44 7889 139677