Description

DESCRIPTION A substantial and impressive early 20th-century mahogany twin-pedestal sideboard in the Adam Revival manner, of unusually generous proportions and with particularly attractive carved neoclassical decoration. The long breakfront top is surmounted by a raised half-gallery and sits above an arrangement of drawers, including a projecting central drawer. The drawer fronts are decorated with carved floral and scrolling ornament, complemented by reeded detailing and beaded mouldings. The two pedestal cupboards are each centred by a large panelled door richly decorated with carved neoclassical swags, ribbons and paterae. The whole is raised on boldly carved paw feet, giving the sideboard a particularly strong and architectural appearance. The mahogany has developed an attractive deep colour and the restrained Adam Revival ornament gives the piece considerably more character than a conventional pedestal sideboard of the period. A handsome statement piece offering substantial storage and particularly well suited to a large dining room, entrance hall or period interior. DIMENSIONS Height: 111 cm Width: 223 cm Depth: 70 cm CONDITION The sideboard is in good, honest cond...
