It measures 3ft 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, dates from around 1930, and remains in excellent condition. Originally, Roberts & Co. of Willenhall — a "Complete House Furnishers" — sold this Art Deco walnut desk in 1930's England. Notably, the desk boasts a classic "skyscraper" design, clearly visible in the bow-shaped top section, which sits on stepped pedestals finished in two-tone, book-matched figured walnut with a burr elm frame. Furthermore, this Art Deco writing desk features a new, curved, 6mm glass panel top with polished edges. If you don't ne...
