Description

Josef Lorenzl Austrian Art Deco Gilt Bronze Ballerina Highlights Original Austrian Art Deco gilt bronze ballerina by Josef Lorenzl. Signed Lorenzl to the reverse of the raised circular bronze base. Elegant ballerina balancing upon one leg with elongated legs, closed eyes and a graceful stylised pose. Mounted upon an onyx plinth with bronze fittings. Documented Lyon and Turnbull, Edinburgh provenance. Introduction A fine original Austrian Art Deco gilt bronze ballerina by Josef Lorenzl, 1892-1950 The ballerina is captured in an elegant pose, balancing upon one leg while her elongated figure creates a wonderfully graceful silhouette. Her raised head, closed eyes and flowing drapery convey the sophisticated movement associated with Lorenzl's celebrated female figures. The warm gilt bronze surface contrasts beautifully with the architectural onyx plinth, producing a particularly decorative example of Austrian Art Deco sculpture. Signed Lorenzl to the reverse of the raised circular bronze base.
