Description

K0467 An unusual French 19th-century wall mirror featuring an elegant cream and water-gilded gold leaf frame. The shaped and beaded border is crowned by an elaborate, deeply carved openwork crest showcasing a central scallop shell flanked by sweeping floral and foliage motifs. The mirror retains its original thick, bevelled-edge glass, which displays a beautifully aged foxing that adds authentic antique character and depth. Having been gently conserved, the frame preserves a desirable portion of its original gold leaf gilding alongside an original cream finish on gesso. Fitted with a four wall brackets and replacement backboard for structural integrity, this striking piece comes in home ready condition. It serves as a commanding focal point for an entryway, mantle, or formal living space. c1850 H62" W39.5" D4.5" H5ft2" W3ft3.5" D4.5" H157cm W101cm D12cm We invite you to view our full inventory for an curated selection of fine antiques and decorative mirrors, all beautifully preserved and ready for the home.
