Description

P0297 A stylish and generously proportioned late 19th-century Victorian antique wall-mounted coat rack. This long piece features a solid pine backing board finished in a sophisticated, soft grey paint, perfectly accented by an elegant, classic moulded edge. The rack is fitted with a complete set of nine robust, cast brass hooks arranged in an alternating set of five and four. Each hook is tipped with a smooth, white ceramic button to protect delicate garments and hats. Offering substantial hanging capacity combined with country-house elegance, this versatile statement piece is ideal for an expansive entryway, hallway, mudroom, or boot room. It has been meticulously cleaned, polished, and waxed, arriving completely free of woodworm in sturdy, home-ready condition with two integrated wall fixings for immediate installation.
