Description

Six delightful Victorian glass champagne bowls, assembled to form a 'harlequin' set. Harlequin sets are individual examples placed together to celebrate a combination of their similarities and differences. This fine set are English and all date from the late-Victorian era. Usefully doubling as cocktail glasses, the details are as follows :- 1. Band of slice cutting to bowl and supporting collar to plain stem. Polished pontil to foot. 2. Bands of prism and slice cutting, below a band of Greek Key pattern. Hollow and shaped slice cut stem and polished pontil mark to foot. 3. Band of etched pattern to top of bowl. Partial hollow stem and polished pontil to foot. Possibly Whitefriars. 4. Etched Greek key pattern to the bowl. Plain stem and polished pontil to foot. 5. Five bands of star etching to bowl. Plain stem with supporting collar and polished pontil to foot. 6. Etched fruiting vine pattern bowl. Plain stem and polished pontil to foot. Dimensions given are an average. Height and width have very slight variations from glass to glass. Dimensions below.
