Description

A fine early 19th century gilded silhouette portrait of a lady. The work is well executed with intricate gilded detailing to the hair and clothing. The work is housed in a period gilt wood frame. There is a small gap to the top of the frame where the paper has been pushed down ever so slightly (note this is not visible when viewed face on). There is a small chip to the bottom of the frame (please see photographs). A fine silhouette portrait which displays extremely well.
