Description

We have a very rare 1930s Lloyd Loom armchair often referred to as "Zeppelin chairs" as they were apparently made for luxury airship travel. We love the design and shape of this with the smart use of oak incorporated into the armchair. It possesses some charming historic wear in the right places and like most Lloyd Loom chairs it's so pleasant to sit in. As mentioned, the condition of the heavy frame and loom is highly original with a little break at the lower rear, stable and not a concern. The separate seat cushion which sits above the original springs is perfectly usable but you may wish to replace it with a fabric of your choice - please let us know when ordering and we will assist. Clean and ready for placing. Paper makers label and date stamp to underneath of seat. An ample sized, rare Lloyd Loom armchair C1930 perfect for a garden room, kitchen or quiet corner of a lounge... Dimensions Overall: Height 90cm x Width 55cm x Depth 67cm Seat: Height 46cm x width 45-40cm (Front-Rear) x Depth 50cm When purchasing from us we include delivery in the purchase price which is based on a one person delivery for England and Wales. Please call or email for quotes to Scotland, ...
