Item Reference: SA1230130

Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

Victorian Taxidermy – Albino Starling C circa 1875. The bird nicely modelled, with the finest pink eyes, and mounted on simple branch work, amongst well executed (peat based) ground work with fine grasses and ferns. Complete with its original glass shade and old silk braided trim. Unlabelled, but evidently the work of a talented taxidermy firm. Provenance: Purchased by ourselves, directly from a Royal Leamington Spa residence.
