Description

This box settle is in good condition. It has been professionally stripped and restored and then waxed in a lovely antique oak wax giving it a stunning patina. This box settle would look well in an old or modern property in any room for seating purposes. It would look great in entrance hallway etc. The bench stands on square back legs and exaggerated front legs supporting the main section. There are two panels to the front that have a lovely carving upon them and exaggerated moulding. There is a lift up lid that has plenty of storage space beneath. There are two beautifully shaped and carved arms. The back rest has three panels with similar carvings. The top is beautifully shaped. The height is 106cm, the seat height is 45cm, the width is 105cm and the depth is 48cm.
