Description

Fine George I/II Walnut & Oak Chest of Drawers | Feather Banded, Original Construction, c.1720–1740 Key Features & Craftsmanship Exceptional Walnut Veneer & Feather Banding: The drawer fronts are faced in beautifully figured, honey-toned book-matched walnut veneer, bordered by fine herringbone (feather) banding and cross-banded edges that frame each drawer perfectly. Banded Walnut Top: A major feature of this piece is its striking top surface, showcasing a richly figured central field framed by a wide, cross-banded walnut border with delicate feather inlay detailing. Engraved Hardware: Adorned with period-correct, engraved brass swan-neck handles mounted via traditional split-pins, complete with matching engraved escutcheons. Classic 3-Over-3 Configuration: Features three short over three long graduating drawers, offering versatile storage while maintaining ideal aesthetic balance. Solid Oak Construction: Built with walnut veneered directly over robust solid oak carcasses, featuring full oak sides and sturdy oak drawer lining. Workshop Restored: Carefully revived in our workshop to preserve historical integrity, nourish the timber, and ensure smooth drawer operation...
