Description

A Windsor chair by J. Spencer is a sought-after 19th-century antique, crafted around 1850–1860 in Nottinghamshire, England. These chairs feature an incised "J. Spencer" stamp on the side of the elm seat, and typically combine yew-wood bentwork with distinctive regional turnings. This one has fabulous colour and is sturdy. There are fine shrinkage cracks. 57cm wide x 103cm high x 57cm deep
