Description

Antique 20th century set of four barley twist dining chairs in oak, a handsome and characterful matching set combining traditional styling with excellent practicality. Well made and of good quality, these attractive chairs have a timeless design that would complement both period and country-style interiors. Each chair stands on beautifully turned barley twist legs united by supporting stretchers, providing a sturdy and well-balanced frame while giving the set its distinctive appearance. The chairs feature removable drop-in seats upholstered in an attractive striped fabric, offering comfortable seating while allowing for straightforward reupholstery in the future if desired. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, beautifully complementing the traditional barley twist detailing. Their pleasing proportions, quality construction and classic design make this a particularly desirable and versatile set of dining chairs. Presented in good condition, this charming set of four oak dining chairs is both decorative and practical. Full of traditional character and timeless appeal, they would make a perfect addition to any home. Product Referenc...
