Description

A beautiful vintage 9ct yellow gold garnet and seed pearl starburst brooch, designed in an elegant Victorian style. This striking brooch features a dramatic multi-point starburst design, richly set with deep red natural garnet gemstones and delicate seed pearls. A larger central garnet forms the focal point, surrounded by seed pearls, with further garnets graduating along the pointed rays. Additional seed pearls are mounted on fine radiating stems, giving the piece wonderful dimension and movement. The brooch is hallmarked for London 1962 and retains its original stones throughout. It has been carefully cleaned and polished and is presented in excellent condition, with the garnets and seed pearls beautifully complementing the warm tone of the yellow gold. Details: Metal: 9ct Yellow Gold Gemstones: Natural Garnets & Seed Pearls Hallmark: London 1962 Weight: 8.1 grams Measurements: Approximately 40mm Condition: Excellent – carefully cleaned and polished Stones: All original A wonderfully decorative vintage brooch with all the romance of Victorian starburst jewellery, combining rich garnet tones, lustrous seed pearls and an impressive statement design.
