Description

Antique 20th century small display cabinet in mahogany, a beautifully proportioned and highly decorative piece offering an excellent combination of display and concealed storage. Very well made and of good quality, this charming cabinet is particularly desirable for its compact proportions, making it ideal for smaller spaces while retaining plenty of character and elegance. The upper section is beautifully glazed with a single door, opening to reveal two internal shelves, providing the perfect space for displaying china, glassware, ornaments or treasured collectibles. Beneath is a useful two-door cupboard offering additional concealed storage. The cabinet retains its original handles and fittings, further adding to its authentic character. Beautiful inlaid decoration enhances the rich appearance of the mahogany, which displays gorgeous natural grain and a warm, attractive colour throughout. Raised on charming small cabriole legs terminating in traditional claw and ball feet, the cabinet has an elegant and distinctive silhouette. Its fine detailing, balanced design and desirable smaller proportions make this a particularly attractive example. Presented in good condition,...
