Description

Vintage 20th century large desk in mahogany, a handsome and generously proportioned piece offering an excellent combination of workspace and practical storage. Well made and of good quality, this substantial desk would be ideal for a home office, study or library. The desk features four drawers in total, arranged as two on either side, providing useful storage for stationery, documents and everyday essentials. One of the drawers has a beautifully fitted interior, offering additional organisation and storage. Each drawer is finished with decorative brass handles, while the spacious top features an attractive brown writing surface. Raised on sturdy square legs, the desk has a clean and well-balanced appearance. The mahogany displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, complementing the brown writing top and brass fittings. Its generous proportions and timeless design make it a particularly desirable and practical piece. Presented in good condition, this impressive mahogany desk would make a perfect addition to any home.
