Description

A mid 19th century oak stick stand of oval form, the hand-worked staves bound by brass bands secured by copper rivets, with brass drop handles mounted to the flanks. Its shallow, flattened oval footprint allows it to sit neatly against a wall in a narrow hallway, vestibule or fireside alcove without encroaching on space, while bringing a distinct historical character to the setting. Very good antique condition with some attractive aged surface wear and evidence of historic, long dormant woodworm. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place. English, circa 1850.
