Description

This beautiful antique cross pendant dates to the Edwardian era and is crafted in 9ct yellow gold. The front is delicately hand engraved with a classic foliate motif, a design full of symbolism from the period and typical of fine Edwardian craftsmanship. The cross has been professionally cleaned and lightly polished, carefully preserving its original character and crisp engraving. It remains in excellent antique condition, making it a wonderful wearable piece of history. Fully hallmarked to the reverse with the Birmingham assay mark for 1911, along with the maker's mark A&C – Able & Charnell, a respected Edwardian goldsmith. A timeless and meaningful pendant, perfect for collectors of antique jewellery or anyone who appreciates classic design with genuine heritage.
