Description

Vintage 20th century small sideboard in golden oak, a charming and well-proportioned piece that offers an excellent combination of storage and display space. Very well made and of good quality, its compact size makes it ideal for smaller rooms while still providing impressive practicality. The sideboard is thoughtfully arranged with four drawers to the left, each retaining its original handles and fittings, alongside a useful open shelf beneath for displaying books, baskets or decorative items. To the right is a single-door cupboard providing additional enclosed storage, making the piece suitable for a variety of uses throughout the home. Crafted from beautifully matured golden oak, the timber displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour that enhances its inviting character. The clean lines, balanced proportions and quality construction reflect the care taken in its manufacture, resulting in a highly desirable example with timeless appeal. Presented in good condition, this attractive sideboard is both practical and decorative. Its versatile layout and desirable smaller proportions make it an excellent choice for a dining room, hallway, living room or kitchen, ...
