Description

Antique 19th century small Georgian style chest of drawers in oak, a beautifully proportioned and increasingly hard-to-find piece of fine quality. Very well made and exceptionally practical, this handsome chest offers generous storage within a compact footprint, making it a highly desirable and rare example. The chest is fitted with five drawers in total, arranged as two smaller drawers above three larger graduating drawers, providing ample storage for clothing and household essentials. Each drawer retains its original brass swan neck handles, adding to the authenticity and character of the piece. Raised on traditional bracket feet, the chest has a sturdy, well-balanced stance that perfectly complements its classic proportions. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, while the beautifully cross-banded top adds an elegant decorative feature that enhances its overall appearance. Its desirable smaller size makes it particularly versatile, allowing it to fit comfortably into a variety of rooms without compromising on storage or visual impact. Presented in good condition, this charming 19th century chest of drawers is both practical and hi...
