Description

Antique 20th century set of six barley twist dining chairs in oak, a handsome and beautifully presented set consisting of four single chairs and two carvers. Well made and of good quality, these attractive chairs combine traditional styling with practical and comfortable seating. Each chair stands on classic barley twist legs united by supporting stretchers, creating a sturdy and distinctive appearance. The upper sections feature attractive carved detailing, adding further character to the design. Removable drop-in seats are upholstered in a striped fabric, complementing the warm tones of the oak. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich colour throughout, while the combination of barley twist supports, carved detailing and matching upholstery gives the set plenty of visual appeal.
