Description

A stunningly beautiful Scottish agate, silver and citrine brooch. Probably made in Edinburgh around 1880. There are 8 hand cut Montrose agate stones encased in crisply engraved silver. The citrine is set in the centre and the pin which is typically Victorian clips into a "C" style clasp. The unmarked brooch is in excellent condition and a very wearable piece of Scottish jewellery. Weight; 36 grams. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
