Description

Antique 20th century carved oak court cupboard, a striking example of traditional craftsmanship, exceptionally well made and of the finest quality. Rich in character and beautifully detailed throughout, this impressive cupboard has an abundance of decorative appeal while offering excellent practical storage. The layout comprises a double-door cupboard to the upper section, two central drawers, and a spacious double-door cupboard below enclosing a single internal shelf. Retaining all of its original handles and fittings, the cupboard remains wonderfully authentic, while its thoughtfully designed interior makes it ideal for everyday use. Every surface has been enhanced with finely executed carving, displaying an exceptional level of skill and attention to detail. The beautifully matured oak boasts gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour, giving the piece tremendous presence and highlighting the quality of the timber. Raised on square legs, it has a sturdy, well-balanced stance that perfectly complements its traditional design. Presented in good condition, this highly desirable court cupboard is a superb example of fine quality oak furniture. Combining impressive cra...
