Description

PAIR OF PASTEL ON PAPER STUDIES OF HORSES IN A LANDSCAPE - CHESAPEAKE & MERMAID A pair of large scale and vibrant 1960's equine studies by the artist Mary Browning who was an acclaimed equine and canine artist. Dating to the 1960's this pair of works feature two horses set within expansive landscapes. Mary painted animals for over forty years, and had strong royal connections having painted dogs belonging to HM Queen Elizabeth, the late Queen Mother, Princess Anne, the Duchess of Gloucester and Princess Michael of Kent. These large scale works are perfect for horse lovers or to add a dash of English country house charm to a characterful interior scheme. Framed dimensions: 76cm x 56cm x 4cm
