Description

A rather good pair of Arts & Crafts hammered copper fire fenders / fire kerbs in lovely condition with classic Arts & Crafts decorations. Never easy to find a pair, these are the same in design with one being a little smaller than the other, both highly attractive. Condition is good with both being well crafted - you could polish up if you wish but we rather enjoy the state they are in. Ready for placing with no faults except a little aging. Price is for the pair. A jolly handsome duo c1900.
