Description

This Regency Style Twin Pillar Dining Table With Two Leaves would be a stylish addition to any dining room. The 2 additional leaves add size adaptability, and when fully extended it is a generous 8-seater. The leaves rest on chunky supporting rails that are themselves kept in place by turned locating pins adding considerable stability to the table when extended. The leaves are locked in place by brass table forks. The generous turned pillars, with four legs to each, are finished off with solid brass castors that exhibit a lovely patina. The solid Mahogany top is moulded to the edge. Presented in excellent condition, the perfect place to sit at for any dinner party. All our prices include free delivery to Mainland England & Wales.
