Description

This TUDRIC PEWTER INKWELL, designed by ARCHIBALD KNOX for LIBERTY & Co and made by SOLKETS of Birmingham, dates from the early 1900s. It is fully marked to the base. The INKWELL retains the character it has developed through its lifetime. It has not been 'air-brushed' into modernity. The warm colour of the PEWTER is still there, as is the lean to the right hand side of the top. There is a glass liner which has suffered some damage. Height: 3.5 inches (9 cm) Width: 6 inches (15 cm) Depth: 6 inches (15 cm) Express delivery within the UK is included. Please email for current discounted Overseas Shipping costs.
