Description

An early 20th century ship's engine room telegraph by Ulugary & Sons. Made by Ulugalry & Sons, Prome, Burma, for the Irrawaddy Flotilla (IFC). Height: 91 cm. Width: 25 cm. The Irrawaddy Flotilla Company (IFC) was a passenger and cargo ferry company, which operated services on the Irrawaddy River in Burma, now Myanmar. The IFC operated from 1865 until the late 1940s. At its peak in the late 1920s, the IFC fleet was the largest fleet of river boats in the world, consisting of over 600 vessels carrying some 8-9 million passengers and 1¼ million tons of cargo a year.
