Description

Robert Morson Hughes (British, 1873-1953) Born in Withyham, Sussex, Hughes studied at Lambeth School of Art and South London Technical Art School. In 1909 he came to Newlyn to study with Stanhope Forbes and there met his wife to be, Eleanore Waymouth. He exhibited at the Royal Academy from 1910 to 1938. Hughes was friendly with many of the second generation artists, Laura and Harold Knight, Munnings and Lamorna Birch to name but a few. Robert and Eleanore Hughes moved to Lamorna c.1910 and lived at 'Chyangweal' from 1911. Original Oil Painting on board, framed. 30.5 x 38cm (12 x 14 15/16in). A very nice original early 20th century painting by the well listed artist, Robert Morson Hughes (British, 1873-1953). The painting depicts a beautiful farming landscape, with buildings and outhouses. Signed to the lower right corner. Condition: The painting is in very good condition overall. Presented in a decent modern wooden frame.
