Description

A good quality antique Edwardian Arts & Crafts oak side table dating from circa 1910. The over-sailing rectangular solid oak top with moulded edge on channelled side supports and arched feet. In beautifully figured solid oak the supports are held in place with pegs, and joined by twin cross stretchers, making this a sturdy piece. An attractive, good quality and versatile piece that would make a wonderful side table, hall table, display or work table.

Construction/Wood Solid oak Condition Report: Good condition with good colour and patina, solid and sturdy. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 92cm Depth: 37cm Height: 74cm
