Description

Dutch Children Genre Oil Painting Antique Mid-Century Original Brief Description: This is a fabulous and wonderfully charming original mid-20th-century Oil on Canvas Genre Painting depicting a small group of children gathered together within a rustic Dutch interior. The delightful composition centres upon a young girl who proudly cradles a black and white cat in her arms, much to the fascination and amusement of the other children gathered around her. It is an incredibly endearing scene, full of warmth, character and wonderful little details. The children are depicted within a traditional domestic interior, complete with wide wooden floorboards, rustic furniture, hanging kitchen utensils and earthenware vessels, all contributing to the wonderfully atmospheric old-world setting. Particularly charming is the interaction between the children, whose expressions and poses give the painting a lovely sense of narrative—as though we have stumbled upon a brief and happy moment in their everyday lives. Dating to the mid-20th-century, the work has been executed in the traditional Dutch genre style so greatly admired by collectors. The painting has a wonderfully warm palette ...
