Description

A fine early 20th-century oak banker's desk, fitted with a black cloth writing surface above twin banks of drawers. The upper three drawers feature working locks with key, while one lower drawer is a deep filing drawer with dividers. Each drawer retains its original brass swan-neck handles, and the desk stands on a solid block plinth with a generous central knee-hole for comfortable seating. Panelled sides and back complete the piece, showcasing traditional frame-and-panel craftsmanship in well-figured golden oak. A handsome, practical desk with timeless character and excellent proportions. Height 77cms x Width 152cms x Depth 91cms. Knee-hole size. Height 68cms x Width 68cms.
