Description

An antique Coalport dessert plate, measuring 10in in diameter, with moulded wreath and ribbon detail at the rim. The centre is beautifully handpainted with a rose and other flowers, which contrasts beautifully with the cobalt blue and gilded border. Dates to c.1820. Condition report: Chips: none Cracks: a hairline to the rim, seen from the back. Barely visible from the front - only when closely scrutinised and tipped into the light. Crazing: some light crazing in patches - not all over. Restoration: none Gilding/pattern: excellent, only very minor wear.
