Description

This stunning 19th-century Japanese Imari charger, with a diameter of 71 cm (25.5 inches), exemplifies the rich artistry of Imari porcelain. The piece showcases a vibrant palette of deep blues, oranges, and greens, meticulously hand-painted with intricate floral motifs. The central design features a lavish vase overflowing with peonies and chrysanthemums, framed by delicate branches and birds, creating a harmonious balance between nature and artistry. The border is adorned with a striking geometric pattern, enhancing its visual appeal. The back of the charger displays a classic Imari mark, signifying its authenticity and craftsmanship. This charger not only serves as a decorative statement but also reflects the cultural heritage and artistic innovation of its time. 65738. DNYKZ
