Description

This is an elegant antique late Victorian three pillar Regency Revival flame mahogany dining table, circa 1900 in date. The rounded rectangular top with reeded edge is a nice mellow mahogany colour and has two 2ft6" (77cm) leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. It can seat twelve people in comfort and is raised on three gun barrel sabre leg bases, the centre section on four outswept legs, the end sections on three legs, all the legs terminating in decoratively embossed brass lion's paw castors. There is no mistaking the fine craftsmanship of this handsome dining table which is certain to become a treasured addition to your furniture collection, and a talking point with guests at meal times. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price, but are available if required. Condition: In really excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
