Description

This elegant large Victorian antique partners library table was crafted from beautiful flame mahogany by W. Priest of Blackfriars, London and dates from Circa 1860. It features a striking inset green leather writing surface that has beautiful hand tooled and gilded impressed decoration. It is raised on four baluster legs that are elegantly turned and faceted and they terminate in their original brass castors. It is a Partners desk and has six frieze drawers, three on each side, the center drawer is stamped Blackfriars, London. They are solid mahogany lined, have hand cut dovetails and are perfectly sized for all the stationary you could possibly need, making this desk not just a symbol of refinement but a practical furnishing as well. Complete with locks and key. It is finished on all sides so that it can stand freely in the middle of a room, making it extremely suitable for a large home or office. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished, waxed and releathered in our workshops. Please see photos for confirmation.
