Description

Antique English silver half hunter pocket watch, 1900. The watch has an English $\frac{3}{4}$ plate stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement was manufactured by The Lancashire Watch Company and is signed, 'Made for JA&NS, Regent Street, London'. The initials stand for the Junior Army & Navy Stores... Junior Army & Navy Stores Ltd was a prominent late 19th / early 20th century co-operative society located at York House, 15 Regent Street. It was founded in 1879 by Major Clench, and operated as a competitor to the larger Army & Navy Cooperative Society. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 51mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside all three covers for Chester 1900 together with the maker's mark for Thomas Hewitt, managing director of The Lancashire Watch Company. The case is in lovely condition, just some age related rubbing to the engine turned detail. Lovely dark blue enamel infill in the Roman numerals to the front of the case. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside, there is a glass lens which is in lovely condition. The dial has a few ...
