Description

Antique 20th century Welsh dresser in golden oak, a beautifully proportioned piece that combines traditional country charm with excellent practicality. Very well made and of fine quality, this handsome dresser offers an abundance of storage and display space, making it a striking addition to a dining room, kitchen or living area. The upper section features four open shelves, providing the perfect place to display china, glassware or decorative pieces. Beneath are two useful drawers, each retaining its original handles and fittings, while the lower section incorporates a spacious double-door cupboard offering generous concealed storage for crockery, tableware or household essentials. The dresser separates into two sections, allowing for easier transportation and installation. The golden oak displays gorgeous natural grain and a rich, warm colour throughout, giving the dresser tremendous character and visual appeal. Its attractive proportions, elegant shape and quality construction make it a particularly desirable example, perfectly suited to both traditional and contemporary interiors. Presented in good condition, this charming Welsh dresser is both decorative and highly ...
