Description

A fine William IV mahogany secrétaire bookcase, showcasing the rich, figured timbers and bold architectural character synonymous with the period. The bookcase stands upon a substantial plinth base, the lower cupboard doors being of panelled form and displaying wonderful flame mahogany veneers. The central secrétaire drawer is fitted with decorative brass lion's mask ring-pull handles and opens to reveal a well-appointed interior comprising seven drawers, pigeonholes and a fitted leather writing surface. The leather is a replacement and features hand-applied gilt and blind tooling, providing an elegant and practical writing area. The upper section features two glazed doors, opening to reveal a generous arrangement of adjustable shelving, ideal for displaying books, objets d'art and collectables. The bookcase comes in two sections for ease of transportation and installation and is presented in good condition. Size: Height 91" (231cm) Width 46" (117cm) Depth 22 1/2" (57cm)
