Description

A superb George I period figured walnut inlaid chest of drawers c.1725. The top surface with book matched figured walnut veneers and herringbone banding to the moulded edge. Two short drawers over three long drawers with matching banding and book matched figured walnut veneers, plus all drawers with original oak drawer linings. Each drawer with engraved brass backplates to the brass drop fittings and complementing escutcheons. Moulded edge trim framing the drawers, which is typical of the period. Polished walnut sides with crossbanding and moulded plinth to the base and standing bun feet below. This chest of drawers has a superb colour and patina, with a fully boarded back.
