Description

David Bates British, (1840-1921) Returning Home Oil on canvas, signed Image size: 17.5 inches x 23.5 inches Size including frame: 26.25 inches x 32.25 inches A wonderful pastoral scene of a woman and a dog herding cows by David Bates. In the foreground, a figure of a woman can be seen walking behind a herd of cattle with her arms outstretched. As she ushers the cows along a track towards a nearby farmyard a sheepdog stands guard to her left. David Bates was born in March, Cambridge in 1840 to Benjamin Bates a shoe maker and Sarah Bates. By 1851, the family had moved to Upton upon Severn in Worcestershire and from 1855 Bates became an apprentice at the Royal Worcester Porcelain Works in Worcester. There he developed his artistic talent, painting flower decorations onto vases and plates. At some point after 1861, he became a full time artist and made his debut at the Royal Academy in 1863, continuing to exhibit there until 1893. He also exhibited at the Royal Birmingham Society of Artists, Suffolk Street and the Grosvenor Gallery. He married Elizabeth Higgs from Worcester in 1867 and they lived at Cherry Orchard, Bath Road in Worcester where their children were later ...
