Description

French Louis XVI Style Inlaid Commode with Rouge Marble Top We are pleased to offer this attractively proportioned early 20th century French Louis XVI style commode. Finely veneered in mahogany and tulipwood, the piece features satinwood and boxwood stringing complemented by a rouge marble top with rounded front corners. The commode is fitted with three oak-lined drawers, each with finely cast gilt bronze ring handles and decorative escutcheon plates. The canted corners are mounted with gilt bronze ornaments. Carried on elegant legs terminating in ormolu sabots. The commode displays pleasing proportions and fine craftsmanship throughout. Dimensions: Height: 85 cm (33.5 in.) Width: 81 cm (31.9 in.) Depth: 39 cm (15.4 in.) From the private collection of a London based Swedish family. A few little marks in align with age but presents very well. The commode retains its working key, with an attractive colour and patina.
